Experience

Some things are just meant to be — that phrase rings true for Dr. Matthew Finke. Growing up in a small town, Dr. Finke cherished life's simple pleasures. Playing football was one of them. It's ironic that the injury he sustained playing the sport he so loved would become the game-changing catalyst that led him to discover chiropractic care.

Helping others comes naturally to Dr. Finke. His passion for helping people is evident in his kind and compassionate demeanor. He says Laser Spine Institute's responsiveness, camaraderie and family-like culture are just a few of the attributes that attracted him to put his talents to work here. When not helping patients get their lives back, Dr. Finke enjoys spending quality time with his wife and three children.
